Truancy Information

Truancy is when a child misses school without a lawful excuse. A child is truant if the days are full or part days missed. The missed days do not have to be in a row. Under Minnesota Statute 120.101, it is the responsibility of parents or guardians to make sure that their children learn the skills needed to become good citizens. A parent who contributes to a child's truancy from school can be charged with a misdemeanor.

Lawful Excuses: If the child is sick or if it is a religious holiday

Unlawful Excuses: If the child didn't feel like going or overslept

If the truancy continues, the school can complete a truancy referral form and send it to the Hennepin County Attorney's Office for appropriate legal action.

Common Low Level Offenses

Shoplifting

Possession and consumption of alcohol

Vandalism

Disorderly conduct
